President's Column:

This is the last bulletin for this year, covering the months of December and January.

We sure had some strange fall with the recent Storms and the relative mild temperatures. But all looks ok now that we get into December!

Life goes on. Here is another advice for a healthy old age I just picked up: dry hand washing, that is just going through the motions whenever you think about it and can spare a minute or so. It exercises the fingers, very important to keep them strong and bending when you need to. I've had occasions when one finger wouldn't want to cooperate, hi!

And don't forget to wiggle the toes, so you keep the balance and possibly stay on your feet longer. I have enjoyed my electric car, although there were some strange problems. We took it on a one day excursion to a dealer in Lima for some minor factory recall and a few other things and it turned out to be major lesson in getting close to "run out on electricity!" hi. I will probably have a longer article in the January Carrier.

Jerry, WA8BOB has lined up a surprise for us: He has invited Connie Bolinger to come and present some Christmas Carols. She is a whistler and does a fantastic job. She is very talented and will be enjoyed by all.

So spread the word and don't forget, bring your family. Cu on the 12th, Gerd, WB8IFM.

And to all of you and family :
A Very Nice Advent
A Happy Christmas
& A Happy New Year 2018
